More Than 5.000 Persons See Boxers and Wrestlers Perform at Former Champion's Testimonial.

New York, Jan. 23 .- The benefit for the family of Terry McGovern in Madison Square Garden to-night was a big success. More than 5,000 persons paid admission, a two-week trip through Northern and from all sources it was estimated that nearly $25,000 would be realized. William A. Brady sold at auction six pictures of the demented boxer in fighting attires for a total of $1,375. One of these pictures was sold over again for $575, the money going to McGovern's old opponent,

George Dixon, now penniless. The programme was made up of boxing, wrestling, and vaudeville acts. Among the boxers that put on the gloves were Spike Robson, the English feather-weight champion; Mike (Twin) Sullivan, Honey Mellody, Harry Harris, Martin Canole, Martin Flaherty, Harlem Tommy Mur-dick, Phil McGovern, Matty Matthews, aud many others. John Pienig and Ernest Roeber were among the grappiers that appeared on the mat. Tim Hurst, Charley White, Tom Sharkey, Gus Hill, Adolph Zink, Teddy Marks, Bert Crowhurst, Jack 729 717 749 McGuigan, and others officiated as referees.

Telegrams making contributions to the fund were received from a number of out-of-town sporting men, including John L. Sullivan, Spider Kelly, and Otto Floto,

The show, which was one of the biggest of its kind ever held in this country, was not concluded until after midnight. It was attended by all of the best known men in racing, boxing, baseball, and theatrical circles, who aided Sam Harris and Joe Humphries, the managers of the affair, in making it a memorable testimonial to the little fighter.
